Editorial Review

Review

"The book has proved invaluable in one to one teaching, allowing me to focus on the student's problem areas. I have also used it with success in a group environment. There is sufficient material to provide meaningful practice of each sound with enough variety to keep students entertained." --A teacher from St. George International college, London.

"The book is particularly useful for problem sounds that students might have difficulty with. Both teachers and students have given the book positive feedback." --Steven Miller, Director of Studies, Mayfair School of English, London

"We were surprised by the large number of students who wanted to get rid of their accents." --Tim Matthew, Oxford House College, London
