Movies Made for Television: 2005-2009 By Alvin H. Marill

In 2005, Scarecrow published Movies Made for Television, 1964-2004, a five-volume reference set commemorating 40 years of every made for TV film since See How They Run debuted in 1964. These books provided a comprehensive listing of every television film and mini-series, detailing each film's original network, airdate, and length of broadcast. In this latest volume, Marill adds another five years of television films, providing information for an additional 400 works produced between 2005 and 2009.

Along with a brief summary, entries also include extensive production credits (director, writer, producer, composer, director of photography, and editor) and a complete cast and character listing. With a chronology of the films, an appendix of movies adapted from other sources, and separate indexes for actors and directors, Movies Made for Television, 2005-2009 is a welcome addition to a resource highly regarded by scholars and historians of television and popular culture.

Kurt Bohnert:

As a student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Movies Made for Television: 2005-2009 can make you experience more interested to read.
