Claimed by a Vampire (Vampire Guardians Book 3) By Jody Offen

Her gaze returned to his face. When their eyes clashed again this time she looked down feeling embarrassed hoping it wasn't too obvious that she'd been so blatantly sexing him up in her mind. No less to include selling tastes of his body to random women and allowing her bestie to pimp his image out to the world via the internet super highway... and knowing Kylie, probably for a nominal fee that they'd use later to host a get-smashed-its-on-the-hot-guy-fest. She bit her lip and looked back up at his face, this time not looking away when he returned her gaze – that looked as if he knew her every thought. Here's hoping to NOT. She almost giggled at the thought. If he knew all the crap I'd been thinking he'd have had my ass tied this bed using and abusing me long before now.

He thought to himself. I have incredible self-control and that is the only reason you aren't tied to this bed little girl; although if you keep tempting me I'm always up for a lesson on used and abused. What he did say to her was, "My name is Dare."
