His Kind of Cowgirl By Karen Rock

Would he still love her...if he knew?

Tanner Hayes smashed Claire's life to pieces when he chose the rodeo over her ten years ago. And now he'd wrecked her truck! Fantastic. She'd lost her husband, the family ranch was mired in debt, her father was recuperating from a stroke and her son was being bullied. Why not throw a reckless bull rider into the mix?

All she'd wanted was a safe, stable life. But with Tanner back in town—and staying on her ranch—nothing was safe, or under control. Not the feelings she'd fought so hard to forget. Not the son she was determined to protect. And certainly not her long-held secret...

"His Kind of Cowgirl is an emotional read that is well worth your time." - Romantic Times

"Oh, the mistakes. The misunderstandings. The secrets and the pride. All of those things add to the sizzle moments, the growing bonds and the truth to make the end product so, so sweet. This was a fantastic clean romance. Love! " - Aimee Brown, Getting Your Read On

From the Author

I loved penning this second chance, secret child love story set on a Texas prize bull ranch. Research is one of my favorite parts of writing stories. I was very lucky to connect with PBR agent, Sheri Smith, who represents Mike Lee, an elite bull-riding champion on whom I based my hero, Tanner. In addition to her busy work schedule, Sheri, a Navy veteran, works tirelessly to support all military, EMS, firefighters, law enforcement and other professionals that protect and serve our country through her incredible organization, which I support, WARRIORS AND RODEO. It provides rodeo gear, via donations and sponsorship, to war veterans interested in the rodeo/western lifestyle. Whether it be vests, helmets, chaps, boots, spurs, hats, ropes, clothing or other items - WAR gives back to those who are willing to give it all. I hope you'll check out this very worthy cause at warriorsandrodeo.org/

From the Inside Flap

My cowboy hero, Tanner Hayes, is a three time national bull-riding champion. He never knew the father who walked out on him and his addict mother before he was born. A former troubled youth, his teachers told him he'd never amount to much and nearly flunked him out of high school. When his chance to tour with the Elite PBR team came, he jumped at the opportunity to prove them wrong. He'd been sure the love of his life, former barrel-racer Claire Shelton, would overcome her fear of rodeo riding after a life-threatening accident and join him on the road. To his dismay, she stayed home, married another man and had a baby just a year after they'd broken up. She may have moved on fast, but he never could. Ten years later, when a torn rotator cuff means his career may be over, he's grateful when Claire's father, a long time friend, offers to let Tanner return to the bull ranch to rehab and figure out his dismal future in exchange for helping out on the debt-mired ranch. With Claire widowed and single again, Tanner's old feelings rush back, including new ones for her lonely son who follows Tanner around the ranch. Suddenly Tanner's reconsidering if bull-riding is all he's good at after all. Is his restless spirit ready to settle down and will Claire give him the second chance they both need?
