Editorial Review

Review

In addition to its fields of garlic and artichokes, California's Central Coast is home to vineyards and wineries that are becoming more well known. A clever match of the produce and wines of the area is presented in Signature Dishes by the sister team of Tricia Volk and Mary Tartaglione. It's a collection of recipes from the winemakers: Each dish is accompanied by a description of the vineyard, as well as wine suggestions; wine is often the ingredient in the recipes, too. This pretty book is filled with creative ways to enjoy the wines--and food--of this fertile region. -- Bon Appetit, June 1, 1995

Over sixty recipes accompany a wine list compiled from local central coast wineries. Cooks will find this an enjoyable collection of innovative and unusual recipes contributed by chefs and winery owners and meant to be paired with particular styles of wine. -- Midwest Book Review

About the Author

Tricia Volk and Mary Tartaglione are sisters who grew up amid the smells of freshly baked bread and homemade soups of their mother's kitchen. Volk has been professionally involved in the culinary arts for the majority of her life. She is the co-owner of Wild Horse Winery, located in Templeton, in the heart of California's Central Coast. Tartaglione is a professional writer and regular contributor to publications in the northern and southern hemispheres. A corporate escapee, she teaches yoga during her writing breaks.
