Editorial Review

From School Library Journal

PreS-Gr 1—Disney animation artist Keane delivers her picture book debut with a cartoon fantasy awash in mostly pink and purple pastels. At bedtime, ethereal dreams take over Celeste's ponderings on the ideal gift for her mother. The wind carries her into the sky to star princesses and a castle. The moon tells her stories, and then the sun princess greets her at dawn with a cup of tea. The next morning, inspired by her travels, Celeste gathers flowers that sparkle like stars and blossoms that glow like the moon, then ties them with a red hair ribbon, to provide her mother the perfect present. VERDICT Fairy fans will be pleased with this modest tale.—Gay Lynn Van Vleck, Henrico County Library, Glen Allen, VA
